

Breeds Currently Experiencing Thyroid/Immune/Autoimmune/Endocrine System Problems:

Sporting

American Cocker Spaniels
English Cocker spaniels
English Setters
English Springer Spaniels
German Shorthaired Pointers
Golden Retrievers
Irish Setters
Irish Water Spaniels
Vizslas
Gordon Setters
Labrador Retrievers
Weimaraners
Flat Coated Retrievers

Terriers

Airedales
Cairn Terriers
Fox Terriers (both varieties)
Kerry Blue Terriers
Manchester Terriers (both varieties)
Miniature Schnauzers
Scottish Terriers
Soft Coated Wheaten Terriers
Dandie Dinmont Terriers
Border Terriers
Norwich & Norfolk Terriers

Herding

Australian Shepherds
Border Collies
Collies (rough, smooth, bearded)
German Shepherds
Old English Sheepdogs
Pembroke Welsh Corgis
Belgian Tervuren
Belgian Sheepdog
Belgian Malinois
Shetland Sheepdogs
Bouvier Des Flandres
Briard
Australian Cattle Dogs

Hounds

Afghans
Basset Hounds
Beagles (both varieties)
Dachshunds (all 3 varieties)
Irish Wolfhounds
Salukis
Whippets
Greyhounds
Pharoah Hounds
Petit Bassett Griffon Vendeen
Rhodesian Ridgebacks

Working

Akitas
Alaskan Malamutes
Boxers
Doberman Pinschers
Great Danes
Kuvasz
Newfoundlands
Mastiffs
Portuguese Water Dogs
Rottweilers
Samoyeds
Siberian Huskies
Tibetan Mastiffs

Toys

Brussels Griffons
Miniature Pinschers
Pugs
Silky Terriers
Toy Poodles
Yorkshire Terriers
Pomeranians

Non-Sporting

Bulldogs
Chow Chows
Dalmatians
Keeshounds
Miniature Poodles
Shar Peis
Shih Tzu
Standard Poodles
Boston Terrier
Lhasa Apso

Note: more breeds are being added every few months. Some may already have the problem(s) but there are so few representatives in this country that statistics may not be available. These problems have all developed in the last 20 years since we've been giving our dogs so many vaccines. Many mongrels and crossbreeds have also been diagnosed with these problems. So much for hybrid vigor!!!!